

How many different characters are there in your story.
Which is your favourite?

Write down 3 questions you would like to ask your favourite character. What do you think their responses would be?

Dialogue is an important part of many stories. Pick your favourite scene from your story.

Use speech bubbles and draw a conversation between two characters.